

Internship Guide for Module 9 of the Master's Program Religion, Ethics, and Politics

- ↗ The internship may be undertaken with a national or international organization, a political party, a media institution, an advocacy group or non-governmental organization (NGO), or a faith-based institution. The internship carries a value of 10 ECPs, corresponding to approximately 300 working hours over a minimum duration of eight weeks. The subject matter of the internship must be directly related to the student's field of study.
- ↗ You have to get approval for your internship in advance by the MAREPOL internship supervisor, Prof. Dr. Christoph Schuck. Upon completion it has be registered as passed.

Proceed as follows:

1. Please prepare a PDF document containing the following information

- ↗ Title of your internship
- ↗ Link to the official website
- ↗ Address of the internship site as well as the period of your internship
- ↗ Short description of your tasks and duties during the internship
- ↗ Three guiding questions for the internship report

Please send an e-mail with your PDF to Prof. Christoph Schuck and Niklas Dummer (marepol.ht@tu-dortmund.de).

2. You will receive approval of your internship via email.

3. During your internship, please ask for a confirmation of your internship in form of an internship certificate. The exact time of your internship hast to be included in the document.

4. Prepare a field report about your internship. The internship report should be ten pages in length. It has to fulfill the following criteria:

- ↗ A cover page with your full name, matriculation number, basic information about your internship
- ↗ Your three guiding questions (from the approval process) and the answers to them
- ↗ Comprehensibly link your previous guiding questions to your internship by merging scientific findings and practical experiences

5. Submit your internship report together with your internship confirmation via e-mail with Prof. Dr. Christoph Schuck (christoph.m.schuck@tu-dortmund.de) and Niklas Dummer (marepol.ht@tu-dortmund.de).

Good luck with your internship!
