

Internship Guide for Module 9 of the Master's Program Religion, Ethics, and Politics

- The internship can, for example, be with national or international organizations, a political party, a media institution, a relevant advocacy group/NGO, or a religiously oriented institution. An internship must have a minimum duration of eight weeks. It is worth 10ECPs. Your internship must be thematically connected to your course of studies.
- You have to get approval for your internship in advance by the MaREPol internship supervisor, Prof. Dr. Christoph Schuck. Upon completion it has to be registered as passed.

Proceed as follows:

1. Please prepare a PDF document containing the following information
  - Title of your internship
  - Link to the official website
  - Address of the internship site as well as the period of your internship
  - Short description of your tasks and duties during the internship
  - Three guiding questions (to be answered in the internship report)Please send an e-mail with your PDF to Magdalena Franz (magdalena.franz@tu-dortmund.de).
2. You will receive approval of your internship via email.
3. During your internship, please ask for a confirmation of your internship in form of an internship certificate. The exact time of your internship has to be included in the document.
4. Prepare a field report about your internship. The internship report should be ten pages in length. It has to fulfill the following criteria:
  - A cover page with your full name, matriculation number, basic information about your internship
  - Answers to your three guiding questions (from the approval process)
  - Comprehensibly link your previous guiding questions to your internship by merging scientific findings and practical experiences
5. Submit your internship report together with your internship confirmation via e-mail with Prof. Dr. Christoph Schuck (christoph.m.schuck@tu-dortmund.de) and Magdalena Franz (magdalena.franz@tu-dortmund.de)

Good luck with your internship!
